

THE 2/22nd BATTALION LARK FORCE ASSOCIATION

The 2/22nd Battalion Lark Force association has a large number of members, who attend regular events during the year, including:

- The annual Shrine of Remembrance Service held in Melbourne on the closest Sunday to January 23 each year. This service specifically remembers the 2/22nd Battalion, Lark Force, and the civilians who lost their lives.
- On Anzac Day, the association marches under the banner of the 2/22nd Battalion Lark Force at the marches in Melbourne and Bendigo.
- On July 1 each year there is a commemoration held at the Australian War Memorial in Canberra.
- On the last Sunday in July, the group meets at Trawool to hold a service at the memorial on the campsite of the 2/22nd Battalion.
- New members are welcome to join the association.

Monument located at Camp Site No. 26, Trawool Victoria
